Global Sources intends to increase its upcoming cash tender offer to purchase up to approximately $100 million of its outstanding common shares.

- Purchase price remains at $9.00 per share -

- Tender offer is scheduled to commence on June 30, 2010 -

NEW YORK, June 25, 2010 – Global Sources Ltd. (NASDAQ: GSOL) (http://www.globalsources.com) intends to increase the number of shares to be purchased for its upcoming cash tender offer to a total of up to 11,121,000 shares, or approximately 24.9% of its outstanding common shares as at April 30, 2010, up from 6,670,000 shares. The purchase price of $9.00 per share remains, as previously announced on May 19, 2010, increasing the total purchase price to an amount of up to $100,089,000.

Global Sources' chairman and CEO, Merle A. Hinrichs, said: “I am pleased to announce that, after a further review of Global Sources’ cash position, the board of directors has decided to increase the tender offer amount to approximately $100 million. We feel the increase provides a greater opportunity for our shareholders to participate in the tender offer, while also maintaining a cash balance that enables us to evaluate future acquisition or other potential investment opportunities.”
As of March 31, 2010, Global Sources had total cash, cash equivalents and available-for-sale securities of approximately $167.4 million.

The tender offer is scheduled to commence on June 30, 2010, and to expire on or around July 28, 2010. The offer will afford tendering shareholders liquidity for some or all of their shares and will permit them to have their shares repurchased at a 20.8% premium over the closing price per share of $7.45 on June 24, 2010, the last full trading day before this announcement. Shareholders who elect not to tender their shares in the offer will increase their relative percentage ownership in Global Sources following completion of the offer.

Global Sources has been informed that its directors and officers who own shares can be expected to tender their shares in the offer. Such directors and officers beneficially owned approximately 48.1% of Global Sources’ outstanding common shares as of April 30, 2010.

Neither the company’s management, its board of directors, the depositary nor the information agent make any recommendation to any shareholder as to whether to tender or refrain from tendering any shares. The company has not authorized any person to make any recommendation.
